Six players completed a 15-match round robin. A knockout/final stage was planned, but whether it was played and its outcomes are unconfirmed. These are round-robin standings only; the overall champion and final placements are unknown.

01 // TOURNAMENT FORMAT

The tournament will be split into 2 rounds the first part will be a round robin system which will last 5 weeks, where you will all play each other in a bo7. this will be done via 1 match per week against an opponent chosen by the bracket system.

You are rewarded points based on how many games you win in these matches. for example if you win 4 - 0 you will be rewarded 4 points, your opponent 0 however if you win 4 - 3 you will still be rewarded 4 points but your opponent will win 3 points based on the 3 games that he managed to win despite losing the match overall.

First host and map pick will be the player on the left of the bracket where as player on the right will have first spawn choice. then rotate hosts/map picker and spawn picker until match is completed

If you come down to the 7th game in a match the deciding match is always elevation. this map can also be picked before being the decider also. a map can only be picked 1 time each match with the exception of elevation as the decider and possibly picked before hand

Progression to the next round will be the 4 players that earn the most points in the group stage. if 2 players are tied for the same amount of points for example 10 each for 4th/5th place then the person who won the match between those 2 players will progress for having the better head to head.

Stage 2 will be a knockout stage set into 2 matches over 2 weeks semi final 1 week final week 2

Semi final best of 9 and the grand final which will be best of 11

The player who finished 1st in the group stage will play who finished 4th and 2nd place will play 3rd in the semi final stage and the winners of those games will play each other in the grand final

The host for the first game in semi final will be whoever finished 1st and 3rd in there respected games and get first map pick 2nd/4th will get first spawn pick

The host for the first game in the final will be the highest rank player left in tourney for example if 1st place in group stage was eliminated in semi final then 2nd place who made it to final will have first host and if he was also eliminated than 3rd place in group stage will host 1st match
